MESSAGES FROM THE OVCA PRESIDENT AND THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

This column is reprinted from an Eblast that was distributed to residents on Friday, Jan. 20, 2017.

MONTHLY MESSAGE FROM YOUR OVCA PRESIDENT

I sincerely hope that everyone had a joyous holiday season and will have a very happy and healthy new year!

Personnel Updates: After 34 years Frank Forte has decided to leave Oronoque Village and move on to other endeavors. Frank has provided 34 years of dedicated service to our Village.

Human Resources Committee: We are developing performance evaluation tools to be utilized as part of the annual evaluation process for all staff.

Development of job descriptions for all employees has been initiated, as well as plans to update and release a new HR Employee Handbook that includes policies and procedures.

We are assessing the possibility of adding a Manager of HR & Safety to the 2017/2018 proposed budget.

Any concerns or questions regarding any employee matter should be discussed directly with the Executive Director or OVCA President, who serves as HR Chair.

Projects: Good New Updates: Flood Zone Update: We expect a response from FEMA by the end of January.

SCB: Floor sanding and carpet repair in SCB Lounge and Ballroom has been pushed back from end of January to mid-February.

Ping Pong and Arts & Crafts Rooms: Progressing very nicely. The project is expected to be completed by end of February.

Wi-Fi – dead spots in the North and South Clubhouses are being addressed with Optimum.

Cyber-security: Some residents reported that their private emails were inappropriately accessed by the OV Concerned Citizens. They have filed complaints and we are investigating the breach. The OVCA Board has authorized up to $10,000 for this investigation. As part of the overall cyber -ecurity review and best practices, effective immediately, OV staff will be prompted to change their passwords every 60 days.

New Website: The updated website will become live on Feb. 1. You will receive information in The Villager and by Eblast on how to sign in. Check out the new video!

WE ARE ROLLING OUT A NEW WEBSITE!

Starting today, Feb. 1, our newly redesigned website is up and running. The remodeled public home page (www.oronoquevillage.com) features a new video about our community and the benefits of living here.

Thanks to Dima and Jim Thompson for their work in creating this updated -- and critical -- element to our public home page. This video showcases a variety of unit interiors and includes footage of some of the many activities that Oronoque Village offers its residents. This video is a tremendous asset in showing potential homebuyers about the wonderful amenities offered by our Village.

The resident side of the remodeled site has a colorful new face and eye-catching graphics. It is designed to be easier to navigate. The site includes information on Management, OVCA and OVTB Boards and Committees, Club and Group activities and more. Be sure to visit the Maintenance portion of the website, where you can fill out and submit online Service Requests and Odd Job forms. If you look at the Documents section, you will find our bylaws, applications, EZ payment plan information and other helpful material.

Please be aware there is a new sign-on procedure to access the new resident side of the website. Please follow the instructions below:

- Visit www.oronoquevillage.com - you will be taken to the public home page of our website.
- Click on the RESIDENT LOG IN button in the upper right corner.
- For your user name, please enter your email address.
- For your password, enter your first name in lower case letters followed by 123 (example: john123).

- From there you can navigate the new website using the links at the top of the page.

It is strongly recommend that, once you log in, you change your password. To change your password, click your name in the top right of the page, and look for the "Password" field. Enter a new password and click "Update" at the bottom. (Sign-on names cannot be changed.)

For the time being, those who would like to be added to the resident address book, should email a request to Carol King at cking@oronoquevillage.com with the following information: your name, address, home phone number, cell phone number and email address.

If you are unable to log on to the new website, please email Carol and the issue will be looked into right away.

The new website was created under the supervision of the Oronoque Village Communications Committee: Cheryl Dwyer, chairperson; OVCA President Bob Grosso, Barbara Minoff, Emilio Ruiz and Jim and Dima Thompson.

HOW TO REBOOT YOUR CABLE BOX

A digital cable box is like a personal computer in many ways, and could freeze from time to time. When this happens, you will need to reboot it.

Please follow the instructions below, provided by Optimum, to reboot your Scientific Atlanta or your Samsung HD digital cable box.

Scientific Atlanta Digital Cable Box

1. Unplug your cable box from either the wall outlet or the box itself.
2. Wait 5 seconds and plug it back in. During the reboot process, the digital cable box will display "HOLD" followed by "TURN ON." (This may take 3-5 minutes.)
3. When the front panel on the digital cable box displays the time, the reboot is complete. Turn on your TV and cable box. There may be a slight delay while the menu screen loads.

Samsung HD Digital Cable Box

GALERIE OV WINTER SHOW RECEPTION

Story by Barbara Stewart ~ Photos by Marcia Klein

The opening reception for the Galerie OV winter show, "Artistic Photography and Student Sculpture," was held Jan. 15 at SCB. SAC sponsored the event, which was open to all residents.

Guests had the opportunity to meet the participating artists over wine and appetizers, followed by a presentation in the gallery. Barbara Minoff welcomed everyone on behalf of SAC and Barbara Stewart thanked the Arts Guild members who worked very hard on hanging each show. She also thanked those who helped with the reception: Pat Spodick and Sylvia Penzel from SAC, and Arts Guild members Janet Schwartz-O'Leary, Wendy Swain, Diana Strassburger and Ray and Tina Vermette. Marcia Klein was our photographer.

The winner of the People's Choice Award from the fall show, titled "Still Life," is Fred Brideschge for his pastel painting, "Rhino Life," which is now hanging at SCB for everyone to enjoy. Sandy Lunt presented Fred with a gift certificate from the Men's Club and Fred said a few words about his background and his painting.

Wendy Swain spoke about her sculpture classes and introduced her students, who told us about their sculptures.

Barbara Stewart introduced the participating photographers, who said a few words about their pieces. Barbara also said that she was happy that -- due to the expanded hanging space -- there was room to hang all the submitted photographs.

The participating artists are Joanne Arlia, Fred Brideschge, Carol Brieger, Jeanette Caron, Bob Collins, Angela Alvisi, Marilyn Burgeson, Gail Bushell, Marilyn Coffey, Mirtha de la Reza, Barbara Dierolf, Peter Feick, Ed Genga, Marcia Hayducky, Mel Holson, Mike Lucas, John Maher, Jo

BEYOND THE VILLAGE

The Connecticut Ballet will present a tribute to Bob Fosse during an anniversary program in May.

Foxwoods Resort Casino will present four multi-show performances of Broadway classics. The Broadway Series at Foxwoods will be held in Fox Theater beginning in April and will include Jesus Christ Superstar, 42nd Street, Pippin and Mamma Mia! Tickets for all performances are on sale now and may be purchased online at www.foxwoods.com or by calling the Foxwoods Box Office at 800-200-2882 or Ticketmaster at 800-745-3000. Tickets are also available at any Foxwoods Box Office.

Connecticut Ballet's 35th Anniversary Program, titled "Thirty Something!" will take place May 6 at the Palace Theatre in Stamford. The performance will feature Les Sylphides, a classical ballet in the Romantic style; Strays, a commissioned work by Paul Taylor dancer, Lila York; and Steam Heat: The Best of Bob Fosse, from the choreographer who gave us Pippin, Chicago and Sweet Charity. All tickets are $35 and are available at www.palacestamford.org.

Ridgefield Playhouse presents "An Evening with Rita Moreno" on Feb. 18 at 8 p.m. Recipient of a 2015 Kennedy Center Honor, she remains one of only nine performers ever to win all four major artistic awards: the Oscar, the Emmy, the Grammy and the Tony. Rita will sing her favorites from Broadway, the Great American Songbook and more. For ticket information, visit <http://ridgefieldplayhouse.ticketoffices.com> or call 203-438-5795.

The Westport Country Playhouse Script-in-Hand Playreading Series will continue on Feb. 6 with a reading of The Supporting Cast by George Furth at 7 p.m. The wife of a successful author has written a book about friends who are spouses of celebrities and what it is like to be married to somebody famous. She has invited them to her house on the beach at Malibu to let them read advance copies and to break the news to them gently that they are depicted -- warts and all. Needless to say, this does not go as planned! Tickets are $20 per person and can be ordered at www.westportplayhouse.org or by calling 203-227-4177.

FITNESS FOR OLDER ADULTS

By Ed Genga M.A., CSCS

Falls and fractures are not an inevitable part of growing older. Many falls result from personal or lifestyle factors that can be changed. Your doctor or other health care provider can assess your risk of falling and suggest ways to prevent falls.

At your next check-up, talk with your health-care provider about your risk of falling and changes you might make to lessen the chance of a reoccurrence. Also, let your doctor know if you have fallen or almost fallen. Here are some changes you might want to make:

Be Physically Active: Regular physical activity is a first line of defense against falls and fractures. Physical activity strengthens muscles and increases flexibility and endurance. In turn, your balance and the way you walk may change, decreasing the chances of a fall. It's important to keep muscles strong. Strengthening muscles in the lower body can improve balance. Work with your doctor, physical therapist or personal trainer to plan a physical activity program that is right for you.

Have Medicines Reviewed: Find out about the possible side effects of medicines you take. Some medications might affect coordination or balance, or cause dizziness, confusion or sleepiness. Some medications don't work well together, adding to your risk of falls. Bring prescribed and over-the-counter medicines with you when you visit the doctor. Also bring any vitamins, minerals and herbal products you may be taking.

Have Blood Pressure Checked When Lying and Standing: Some older people have normal or increased blood pressure while seated, but their blood pressure drops too much on standing. There is no way to know unless you check.

Your doctor should check your blood pressure and pulse after you have been lying down for at least 5 minutes and again after getting up. If it drops too much upon getting up, ask about your medications dosage. Drinking more water, getting up more slowly, pumping feet or hands before getting up, or wearing compression stockings can also help.

As we get older, vision problems, inner ear problems or weakened hips and ankles can throw off our balance. When young people get off balance, they can react quickly. Muscles kick in to stabilize us and we don't fall down. But as we age, we have to work a little harder to keep those muscles strong.

Balance exercises can be an easy and fun part of everyday life. Here are some exercises that may help you keep on the go. All of these exercises are good for the hips and ankles. I suggest that you position yourself near a wall, chair or counter before you start. That way you can catch yourself if you fall.

Brush and Balance Exercise:

This exercise is done while brushing your teeth.

1. Stand by a flat tabletop or counter. Lift your right foot a bit.
2. With your right arm, brush the upper left corner of your mouth (with a real toothbrush) for 30 seconds.
3. Now use your left hand and raise your left foot. Brush the upper right corner of your mouth for 30 seconds.
4. Switch again and repeat on the other side.

Rock Around the Clock Exercise:

1. Stand straight with your feet together and your shoulders relaxed.
2. Make your body rigid as a board.
3. Begin to "rock around the clock," by swaying in a circle with your body.
4. Sway for one minute in each direction.

Marching Exercise:

1. Stand next to a chair or counter. Don't hold on unless you need to.
2. Alternate lifting one knee as high as possible, then the other knee as high as possible.
3. Do this for one or two minutes, counting a long "one, two" each time you lift the knee.

The Living Room Walk:

1. Walk slowly across your living room.
2. While walking, slowly turn your head as far to the right as you can.
3. Walk back to your starting point, slowly turning your head as far to the left as you can.

WHAT WERE YOU DOING NEW YEAR'S EVE?

Story by Dee Varholak ~ Photos by Bob Krakovich

Yeah, yeah, I know, I know! It's a song title, but it had a special ring for almost 100 revelers at the Oronoque Country Club on Saturday, Dec. 31, 2016.

So, what's the answer? We were raising our champagne glasses welcoming Year 2017, of course. Where were you? We were really having a great time at the Annual New Year's Eve Party. The Country Club was indeed "Glitz and Glam" with sparkling gold and silver twinkling lights. Even the foyer was decorated for our celebration by Carolyn Novotny.

Tall glass centerpieces draped with gold silk sashes and strands of lights and silver beads graced every table. Black tablecloths were sprinkled with silver and gold confetti, stars and Hershey Kiss favors with New Year's Eve-designed stickers. Jeweled black napkin rings on gold and white napkins and individual place cards were at each setting. The finishing touches were large, gold, satin bow sashes that were tied on the back of every chair; they were stunning and added so much to the elegance of the entire room.

The gold and silver theme was carried over to the top hats and ladies' glitzy white-feathered tiaras. noisemakers, horns and beads and were all placed on a table ready for the evening. Another table held all the donated prizes for the free raffle, which included baskets of wine and sets of wine, cheese, snacks, coffee and tea choices, as well as Dolce and Gabana perfume sets, Chanel No. 5, Este Lauder perfume, stationery and other items.

It was so wonderful to see the looks on the guests' faces as they walked into the dining room and saw the decorations and felt the ambience. It seemed like a very special night ... and it was!

Sound Advice, the entertainer, kept many of us on the dance floor throughout the evening ... even during dinner!

During the cocktail hour, we enjoyed a delicious hors d'oeuvres buffet and passed appetizers. Our chef, Tom, and his staff prepared wonderful dinners and the service was excellent.

Bob Cutler and Terry Kneece on the dance floor during the New Year's Eve party at OCC.

At 10 p.m. there was a champagne toast for the first New Year's Eve. (It happened to be midnight in Argentina and we raffled a bottle of wine from Argentina. Hence, we had a winner who took the bottle home.) All the gifts were raffled off and lots of "oohs" and "ahs" were heard!

The full dance floor indicated the music was working and the party was a party. When it came to dessert, and the dishes were in the dishwasher, and the coffee was brewing, we had more smiling faces. Chef Tom was "The Man!" He outdid himself, and I got the feeling that we would all put our diets on hold for another day once we saw the selections.

Time seemed to have flown because we suddenly heard: "Seven, six, five, four, three, two, one ... Happy New Year." What a wonderful way to spend an evening! There was lots of hugging, and more hugging and kissing, and back-slapping and more hugging.

There's nothing better than being with friends and having a good time. Special thanks to those who made this happen: Sonya DeBiase, Pat Spodick, Carolyn Novotny, Dottie Sullivan and Dee Varholak as well as SAC.

Welcome 2017. Count your blessings and hold these moments fast. A happy and healthy new year to all and yours.

OV ARTS GUILD HOLDS MEETING

The OV Arts Guild held its first meeting of the year on Jan. 11. Members and guests enjoyed tasty appetizers and good company followed by a short business meeting and an inspiring talk by Wendy Swain, titled "Sculpture and Spirituality".

As part of the business meeting, Marge Raggozino, a professional writer and teacher, gave a synopsis of an exciting writing workshop for OV residents that she will present in March. Watch The Villager for details.

Ray Vermette, president, reminded everyone of the upcoming "Sip and Paint" workshop with Sabine Bonner, which will be held on Feb. 10 in the SCB. He also reminded members of the themes for our Galerie OV shows for the year: April - "Colors of Spring;" July - "Quilt Show" and October - "Art Inspired by Travel."

Wendy, our guest speaker for the meeting, is well-known in OV. She has been sculpting in various mediums for the last 20 years. She is interested in sculpting the human figure and especially in exploring inner emotions that can be expressed through sculpture. She is the past president of the Society of Connecticut Sculptors, and presently is a studio member of the New Canaan Sculpture Group under the guidance of Sergey Elanbekov.

During her Power Point presentation, Wendy posed the question, "Can a sculpture evoke a spiritual response?" After seeing photographs of many beautiful sculptures from around the world, the resounding answer was "Yes!"

As a bonus, we learned about the many different materials and styles in sculpture and heard interesting details about the sculptors themselves. Thank you, Wendy, for a wonderful, uplifting afternoon.

At our next regular meeting on April 20, we are fortunate to have as our guest speaker Douglas Cameron Smith, an award-winning editorial cartoonist and illustrator. He will discuss his process, show some of his original artwork, give a demonstration and answer questions.

Regular meetings are free for members and $5 for guests. Membership dues are $15 for the year. For more information, call Barbara Stewart at 203-612-1373.

However, even as Sully was being heralded by the public and the media for his unprecedented feat of aviation skill, an investigation was unfolding that threatened to destroy his reputation and his career. Directed by Clint Eastwood, the film Tom Hanks stars as the title character and Aaron Eckhart as his co-pilot.

The book for March 1 is A Man Called Ove by Fredrik Backman. Ove is the quintessential angry old man next door: an isolated retiree with strict principles and a short fuse, who spends his days enforcing block association rules that only he cares about, and visiting his wife's grave. Ove has given up on life. Enter a boisterous young family next door who accidentally flatten Ove's mailbox while moving in, earning his special brand of ire. From this inauspicious beginning an unlikely friendship forms and we come to understand Ove's past happiness and heartbreaks. What emerges is a heartwarming tale of unreliable first impressions and the gentle reminder that life is sweeter when it's shared. (from Rotten Tomatoes)

"You will never look at grumpy people who come into your life in quite the same way. A very memorable read" (San Diego Union Tribune)
